Cathy Carr, Conference Center Director
Flatwoods Days Hotel
2000 Sutton Lane
Sutton, WV 26601

Dear Cathy:

I am writing to tell you how much I and the other members of our group enjoyed staying at the Flatwoods Days Hotel for our most recent work session. The treatment that we received as we worked online was actually royal with every attention being paid to our needs. There was always someone available to help us – whether it be making an internet connection or making an extra photocopy. The kind of attention we received from your staff is much appreciated.

We plan to be back for another meeting!

Again, thanks.

Sincerely,
